Edison Company Manager Tells Role in City Plans

Important role area-development planning will play in the future growth and prosperity of the Torrance area was described last week by P. L. Martin, district customer service manager for Southern California Edison Company.

Addressing a noon meeting of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce's industrial committee, Martin outlined plans of the electric company to help stimulate the Southland's economy by encouraging select industry to locate here.

"Southern California's mushrooming population must be balanced with new industries and jobs if its prosperity is to stay at present levels or reach new highs," Martin said.

For this reason, the Edison official noted, the utility company is intensifying its efforts to encourage desirable new industries to locate here and in other nearby communities.

Edison's expanded area development department—consisting of specialists who work with community officials and business leaders on plant site locations—now has more than 200 active industrial prospects may locate in Southern California, he said.

Martin has been working closely with the Torrance Chamber's industrial committee in assisting its members in preparing an industrial brochure for this community and showing what has been done in other cities with the help of Edison liaison work.

At Thursday's meeting, Martin introduced an "Industrial Plant Site Survey for Torrance" prepared by the Edison Company. It includes data on the 1154 acres of industrial land available in Torrance, of which 932 acres are not now being utilized.

Martin summarized industry's general objectives in site selection by saying, "Industry is not looking for land and a building; it is looking for a home. It wants to be welcome and needs assurance that a community has schools, churches, culture, electric power and water and sewage facilities (for both the plant and its employees)."

In addition, he said, industry's decisions are based on investigations of transportation facilities, the fairness and efficiency of local government, zoning and civic development plans, land prices and taxes.

"These comprise the community's 'business climate.' Business leaders of Torrance can play an important role in making it as alluring as possible, thereby helping guide select industries to this area," he pointed out. Martin's appearance at

Pass Petitions For Carson Area Street Lighting

Street lights are a future possibility for two adjoining tracts southeasterly of the Carson St.-Avalon Blvd. intersection.

"A petition is being circulated to annex all of one and a portion of another tract to the Dolores Lighting District as a temporary zone," county supervisors said Tuesday.

If the board approves the annexation, 16 lights will be installed on five streets in the two tracts. Thirteen of the lights will be mounted on steel poles.

Plans and specifications prepared by the Los Angeles County Road Department call for installation of seven lights on steel poles on Joel St. and three apiece on Renton St. and 222nd St. easterly of Bonita St.

In addition, two lights will be mounted on existing wood poles on Bonita St. between 222nd St. and one on 223rd St. at the corner of Bonita St.

However, for these lights to be installed, the petition must be signed by property owners representing at least 60 per cent of the assessed valuation of all property in the two tracts.

Persons interested in the annexation were urged to contact Mrs. Daniel Memaradio, 806 E. Joel St., in Torrance, who is circulating the petition. The petition must be returned to the board by October 15.

CONTACT LENSES IDEAL FOR WATER SKIING, SKIN DIVING

Need for vision correction is no longer a "spoilsport" for water skiers and skin divers. Wearing "spectacles" is impractical and hazardous, but the new plastic contact lenses provide clear vision with complete freedom from bothersome flying spray in skiing and boating, or fogging-up behind diving masks. Contact lenses may be worn safely, too, for swimming and diving, without masks. More than a million Americans are wearing contact lenses in sports, at work, and for social occasions. The thinness and lightness of modern small diameter plastic lenses offer advantages never before attainable. Application is easy, and the new lenses can be worn around the clock without discomfort or irritation. Get all the facts! Come in, or write for fascinating new booklet. Easy terms. Dr. J. M. In a letter recommending the action, County Flood Control District Chief Engineer M. E. Salsbury reported that the firm completed work on March 19.

Plans and specifications for the drainage project were approved by supervisors July 11, 1961, and a contract was awarded August 15 of last year.

Construction included about a mile and a half of reinforced concrete open channel, box and pipe conduits, and supporting fixtures, it was reported.

Sometimes it pays to be hardboiled

There are certain things you don't want to take chances with. Your savings, for instance. You want to know they're safe. That when you go to get them, they'll be there—the full amount, with interest. And you want to know that—no matter what—someone's being pretty hardboiled about protecting them. Like a bank.
